

- 22.9.1 Develop a respectful awareness about how ideas and norms about gender have changed over time, and how members of the LGBTQ+ community have responded to persecution or marginalization by building coalitions in order to promote gender equality/equity.
- 22.9.2 Identify successful strategies in the environmental movement of the 20th and 21st centuries in order to make a plan in order to develop, organize local community action.
- 22.9.3 Analyze the strategies, goals and impact of the key movements to promote political, cultural (including artistic and literary), religious and social reform.
- 22.9.4 Understand how some forms of slavery continued even after emancipation, and explore the abolitionist movement from the eighteenth-century until today, examining how it has been utilized in different times and places in order to fight for social justice.
- 22.9.5 Analyze how resistance movements in the US have organized and responded to oppression and the infringement of civil liberties, evaluate the impact of their responses, and apply the successful principles used by groups in U.S. history in order to create communities of respect, equity, and diversity at the school and local level.
- 22.9.6 Trace the roots of modern Civil Rights Movements (including but not limited to African-American, Native American, women, Latinx-America, Asian-American, and Queer American), identify leaders and tactics, and analyze why changes were or were not made.