

Procedural Safeguards of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act

A procedural safeguards notice or parental rights document explains some of the special education rights and procedural safeguards available to parents under federal and state law. For example, you will find information about when you need to provide written consent (agreement), how your child's records are protected, and your options if you do not believe your child is receiving appropriate special education services. ¹
