

MINNESOTA SAFE & SUPPORTIVE SCHOOLS CONFERENCE:

Addressing Bullying in Schools
January 22, 2016

Opening Keynote:

The Challenges, Emerging Issues, and Promising Practices in Improving School Climate

David Esquith, Director of the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Safe and Healthy Students

Closing Keynote:

How to Efficiently Use a Comprehensive Multi-Tiered Approach to Build Conditions for Learning

David Osher, President of American Institute for Research

Student Panel:

Youth Voices: Strategies for Addressing Bullying From Students

Student panel, moderated by Nancy Riestenberg, shares their experiences and insights.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS:

- Gender Identity-Based Bullying
- Working with Children & Adolescents Who Bully
- Facebook Safety Basics
- Restorative Interventions for Bullying in Schools: Stories and Guidance
- Practical Strategies to Support Students in Bullying Situations
- Using the MSS to Create Youth Profiles of Developmental Skills, Supports, & Challenges
- The Biases Behind Bullying – Addressing the WHY
- Bullying of Students with Disabilities

CONFERENCE EVALUATION RESULTS

Please indicate the extent to which the conference was useful to you:

- Extremely useful: 27%
- Very useful: 53%
- Somewhat useful: 20%
- Not at all useful: 0

- 98% agree or strongly agreed that the conference was well organized
- 98% agreed or strongly agreed that their time at the conference was valuable
- 97% indicated that is likely or very likely that they will apply what you learned from the conference to their work
- 95% indicated that the conference gave new ideas to help your child(ren)/students in a bullying situation
- 93% indicated that the conference helped to increase knowledge about bullying prevention and how to create a positive school climate

QUESTIONS & DISCUSSION